

THRILLING VERSES.
[Published at the request of a Lady friend.]
The circumstances which induced the writing of the following touching and thrilling lines are as follows: A young lady in New York was in the habit of writing for the Philadelphia Ledger on the subject of Temperance. Her writing was so full of pathos, and evinced such deep emotion of soul, that a friend of hers accused her of being a maniac on the subject of Temperance—whereupon she wrote the following lines:

Go feel what I have felt,
Go bear what I have borne—
Sink 'neath the blow a father dealt,
And the cold world's proud scorn;
Then suffer on from year to year—
Thy soul's relief the scorching tear

Go kneel as I have knelt,
Implore, beseech and pray—
Strive the besotted heart to melt,
The downward course to stay,
Be dashed with bitter curse aside,
Your tears burslesque, your tears defied.

Go weep as I have wept,
O'er a loved father's fall—
See every promised blessing swept;
Youth's sweetest treasure to gall,
Life's fading flowers strewn all the way,
That brought me up to woman's day.

Go see what I have seen,
Behold the strong man bowed—
With gnashing teeth—lips bathed in blood,
And cold and livid brow;
Go catch his withered glance and see
There mirrored his soul's misery.

Go to thy mother's side,
And hear crushed bosom cheer,
Thine own deep anguish hide;
Wipe from her cheek the bitter tear;
Mark her worn frame and withered brow;
The gray that streaks her dark hair now—
With fading frame and trembling limb;
And trace the ruin back to him

Whose blighted faith in early youth,
Promised eternal love and truth;
But, who, forsworn, had yielded up
That promise to the cursed cup;
And led her down through love and light,
And all that made her prospects bright,
And chained her there 'mid want and strife;
That lowly thing, a drunkard's wife—
And stamped on childhood's brow so mild,
That withering blight, the drunkard's child.

Go, hear, and feel, and see, and know,
All that my soul hath felt and known,
Then look upon the wine-cups glow,
See if its beauty can atone;
Think of its flavor you will try
When a' proclaim, "tis drink and die."

Tell me I hate the bowl;
Hate is a feeble word;
I loathe—abhor—my very soul
With strong disgust is stirred,
When I see or hear or tell
Of the dark beverage of Hell.

A Story for the Ladies.—When I was a little boy I remember one cold winter's day I was accosted by a smiling man with an axe, on his shoulder: "My little man," said he, "has your father a grindstone?" "Yes sir," said I. "You're a fine little fellow—will you let me grind my axe upon it?" said he. Pleased with his compliment of fine little fellow—"O yes, sir, it's down in the shop." I answered, "And will you my man, tapping me on the head get a little hot water?" How could I refuse! I ran and soon brought a kettle full. "How old are you—what is your name?" continued he, without waiting for a reply, "I am sure you are one of the finest lads that ever I have seen; will you just turn a few minutes?" Ticked with this flattery, like a little fool, I went to work and bitterly did I rue the day. It was a new axe and I toiled and lugged until I was almost tired to death. The school bell rang, and I could not get away; my hands were blistered; and it was not half ground. At length, however, the axe was sharpened and the man turned to me with "Now, you little rascal you have played the truant, and to school or you'll rue it. Alas! thought I, it was hard enough to turn the grindstone, this cold day, now to be called a "little rascal" was too much. It sunk deep into my mind, I have often thought of it since.

When I have seen a man of doubtful character patting a pretty girl on the cheek, praising her sparkling eye and ruby lips, and giving her a sly squeeze—beware my girl thinks I, or you will find, to your sorrow that you have been turning the grindstone for a villain.

"An old Man," complains that boys come to see his darters, but say nothing about marrying them; this he does not like—he says "gals must get husbands when they are young, if ever they get them;" and therefore, "those fellows who have no notion of being married, no business to take up the gals' time for nothing, keeping better boys away."

He whom it is hard to provoke and easy to pacify, is pious.

He whom it is hard to provoke, and hard to pacify, gains more than he loses.

He who is easily provoked, and hard to be pacified, is wicked.

COLVER'S
Patent Concave Beater Churn
We call the attention of the public to the article heading this advertisement, and invite the enterprising and curious to call and witness its operation. All advertisement in relation to this invention, to the hundreds who have seen it tested, is supererogation.

First, This Churn will produce butter, gathering it in a mass, from sweet milk, in five to ten minutes, and from cream prepared, as families usually prepare it, in three to five minutes.

Second, The utility of this invention is apparent, as better butter can be produced from sweet milk, or cream, than cream soured in the usual way; and by means of this Churn, a little girl or boy can perform, in five or ten minutes, what has heretofore required the labor of a woman or man for one or two hours, and sometimes half a day.

Third, By simply turning a thumb-screw, the whole inside dasher is taken out, leaving nothing but the butter and milk in the plain wooden box.

RHEUMATISM CAN BE CURED
BY THE PROPER USE OF
MYERS' EMBROCATION!

THIS sovereign and effectual remedy for that painful disease, was discovered upwards of sixty years ago by the Grand-Father of the undersigned, (a German Physician of his day) and has never been made known out of his family.

Its incredible cures have astonished thousands who have witnessed its power over that disease. Unfortunately, despairing invalids, who have been bed-ridden for years, have been restored to the enjoyment of perfect health. It banishes all pain in a few days, and its efficacy is gradually realized by the patients being able to resume their usual avocations, after having suffered in tortments for months and years.

The wonderful success of the EMBROCATION, in curing the worst cases of Rheumatism, has acquired for it a celebrity unprecedented, and its fame originated from its own merits. It never has failed to cure Rheumatism, either inflammatory or chronic; and I feel safe in saying it never will if fairly tried. I pledge myself to refund the cash to any person who uses it properly without being benefited thereby. You who are afflicted may have tried every other remedy but this. Try it, and if it does not cure, it will not cost you anything. By this rule I desire it should be used.

Persons are warned to be on their guard of whom they purchase, as several mean attempts have been made to procure the name from which this medicine is prepared. The proprietor deems it his duty to say to the afflicted, that he will furnish travelling agents with written authority for depositing it.

My name is on each bottle, and none genuine unless prepared by HENRY C. MYERS, Fayette, Missouri.

EVIDENCE OF ITS EFFICACY.
Read what those say of the Embrocation who have used it. A few of the hundreds who have testified can only be quoted here.

From Elders T. M. ALLEN and M. P. WILLES, Boone County, Mo., August 21, 1848.
"This is to certify that we have used 'Myers' Embrocation' in our families with entire success, and we hereby take great pleasure in recommending to any who may be afflicted with Rheumatism as a most sovereign remedy."
T. M. ALLEN.
M. P. WILLES.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., February 20, 1849.
"This is to certify that I have been cured of a severe attack of Inflammatory Rheumatism, from the use of one bottle of your Embrocation, and hope every fellow-sufferer will use it, for their is no doubt but it will cure any case, however violent; this I can safely assert after using it myself."

Yours, Respectfully,
DELOSSE BROWN.
HENRY C. MYERS, Fayette, Mo.

HAMPTON L. BOON, Clerk of the Supreme Court of Missouri, and Editor of the Jefferson City Metropolitan, speaks of the Embrocation as follows, in his paper:

We desire to call the particular attention of all persons afflicted with Rheumatism to this very valuable medicine. One bottle we believe, will cure any case, however violent. The senior editor of this paper, during the last winter and present spring, suffered so much from Rheumatism that he was unable to times to walk or stand upon his feet, or even change his position in bed without assistance.

A part of a bottle cured him in a few days. His son was also afflicted with the same dreadful complaint, and suffered the most excruciating pain until an application of the Embrocation was made, which effected an entire cure.

Col. Minor of this city, also had a severe attack of Rheumatism this spring from which he suffered severely, and which confined him to his bed for several weeks. Nothing gave him any relief until he sent to Rocheport, for my medicine, and procured a bottle of this medicine, which relieved his pains almost instantly.

Mr. Myers ought to have an agent in every county in the State, with which this medicine should be deposited for sale. We repeat our honest conviction, for the benefit of those suffering with Rheumatism, that one bottle of this medicine will cure the most violent case that can be found.—Metropolitan.

BETHANY MO., March 10, 1849.
Dear Sir:—At your request, I called at Rocheport on my return home, and got a bottle of your Embrocation; and gave it to a neighbor whose wife had been much afflicted with Rheumatism of the Chronic form for years. The effect is so self-evident, that if you see proper, you can send me 50 bottles, as I can dispose of it now that it has been tried here.

Yrs, Respectfully,
W. L. WATKINS.
